Subd for orders.

The Kolar C.S. wants the making of Rs 250 & the removal in the case of Urban Societies, and in the case of rural Societies it is of opinion that the limit of 12½% & the minimum of Rs 25 are not desirable (J)

The Sri Ranganatha C.S. Mulimited of Sorab is against the proposed rule (A)

The Bangalore Co-operative Institute thinks that the Regr has wide powers of control under Rule 18 (2), and that the fixing of any absolute & arbitrary minimum is impracticable in practice, and suggests that the fixation relating to the maximum & minimum in the draft rule may be omitted (B)

The Chickballapur C.S. is also for similar reasons opposed to the proposed amendment (B)

The City Cooperative Society Ltd. Bangalore thinks it is unnecessary. (D)

The Cauvery's office Society agrees but would point out that the discretion of the Govt Board in the matter should remain. (H)

Of the Urban Societies, viz. Federal Union of Mysore C.S., City Cooperative Bank & Mysore Cooperative Society are agreeable to the proposal (E) (F) (G)

The Rule may be passed omitting the maximum and minimum profit prescribed for urban and rural societies.

Dev. Secy. 11/4/35

The question is whether any rule is necessary and whether more may not be left to the growing intelligence and independence of the people. In removing the defects which are duly due mainly to want of collective civic conscience Govt may if it is likely, go for by frame rules etc which will in time prevent the healthy growth of civic responsibility. while recognising the evils would rely on the personal influence of the Officers of the Dept for their correction.

Whenever the rule has to be passed, the maximum & minimum limits should be included in the rule & not in the Act.

Secretary to Government, Development Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to note in the margin, copy of Resolution No.6 passed at the 21st Mysore Provincial Co-operative Conference held in Mysore during October last and to recommend, that a rule to that effect may be passed under the powers vested in Government Under Section 44 cl.(v) (iv) of the Mysore Co-operative Societies Regulation of 1918.

"That the bonus or honorarium payable to Secretaries of Co-operative Societies be limited to 12½ % of the net profits remaining after the statutory contribution of 25% to the Reserve Fund subject to a maximum of Rs 250/- per annum, and a minimum of Rs 25 in the case of rural societies"

2. During the course of my inspections, I have observed, that a very large percentage of the nett profits, is taken away by the Secretaries of rural societies as their bonus, and the general body feel helpless and cannot openly oppose such grants, for fear of incurring the displeasure of the Secretary who happens to be the most influential persons in the area. To increase the amount of bonus payable to Secretaries, they sanction renewals of loans, after recovering only interest, very often without consulting committees to the detriment of the proper working of the societies. Further, as the work of the Secretary is of an honorary nature, and some honorarium is to be paid to him for his labour, it is but right that he should be paid a reasonable amount not exceeding 12½ per cent on the total nett profits. I therefore recommend that a minimum of Rs 25/- if it falls short of 12½ per cent and a maximum of Rs. 250 should be fixed, in the case of all unlimited societies, the societies being permitted to allow 12½ % on their nett profits, if the amount falls within these limits. I request early sanction of Government to the resolution passed at the Conference.

I have the honor to be.

III Consideration of the draft amendment to Rule 44 under the Co-operative Societies published in the mysore Gazette.

Read the proposed draft rule published in the Gazette vide No. SD 4605 CS 45-34-2 dated 18th January 1935.

Resolved that the proposed provision is objectionable as it unduly interferes with the local administration and interfere with the Express Wishes of the members

Resolved further that so far as Urban Societies are concerned the maximum rate be reduced, and so far as rural Societies the limit of 12½% and the minimum of Rs 25/- are not desirable in the interest of the rural Societies"

Sir,

Adverting to Government Notification No.D 4610-C.S. 49-34-2 dated 21-1-1935 publishing for information an addition to Rule 18 of the Rules under the Co-operative Societies Regulation and calling for objections, if any, I have the honour to state as follows:-

The grant of bonus or honorarium to the Honorary Secretaries of Co-operative societies is a discretionary power vested in the General Bodies of societies and honorarium is voted only for good work done and not as a matter of course. It may also be noted that the honorarium is voted only when there are profits and the General Bodies do not vote honorarium without declaring dividends on the share capital.

According to Rule 18 para 2, all the profits of un-limited liability societies should generally be credited to the Reserve Fund and for the disposal of the profits in any other manner, the special sanction of the Registrar or the Assistant Registrar, is necessary and thus the Registrar or the Assistant Registrar, have wide powers of control in the matter/matter of the disposal of profits in the case of rural societies which are mostly of the unlimited type.

The fixing of any absolute and arbitrary minimum is in practice unworkable. For example if a society makes a profit of only Rs.50/- a year, Rs.12-8-0 is to be carried to Reserve Fund and Rs.25/- is to be paid as honorarium to the Secretary according to the proposed Rule, and only Rs.12-8-0 will be left for dividends which will certainly not be accepted by any society. As bonus or honorarium is a reward given at the discretion of the General Body according to the amount of profits earned, no absolute minimum can be fixed.

In the draft the words:- "Subject to a maximum ..... rural societies" may therefore be deleted.

1. The Bonus or Honourarium that would be paid to any office bearer in any Society depends upon the profits of the Society and also the quantity of work turned out by the officer concerned.

2. The principle of fixing the minimum or maximum of such bonus is neither workable nor conducive to the efficient working of the institution or to its welfare, in general.

3. The proviso will at times, have the effect of preventing Societies to procure the services of best men..

4. The proviso is also a bad reflection against the General Body that they will not use proper discretion in voting for the bonus of the office bearer.

5. As the Registrar has already enough power to have control in these matters, it is not necessary to pass an enactment fixing the rates of bonus. The present -- practice of leaving the grant of bonus to the General body is more satisfactory and practicable.

Remarks of the Secretaries

It may be stated that the custom that in several societies no remuneration is allowed to the Secretary out of the profits. As regards Societies in which there is the practice of allowing remuneration to the office bearers including the Secretary, the allocation of profits is a matter subject to the vote of the General Body. The percentage of net profits (after provision is made for the reserves, bad debts, dividends, bonus to staff and the recurring charges) will not generally allow an extravagant sum of remuneration to the office bearers, and the limits to be fixed, if any, may be fixed subject to a minimum and maximum percentage of the net profits. The amount receivable by the Secretary may, if the margin of profits distributable be wide, not exceed, either 12½ % of the net profits or Rs 500. whichever is less., it being understood that such remuneration is not an absolute charge on the earnings of the societies, but only subject to the discretion of the General Body when the institution has distributable profits at the close of a year.
